Re: *Scott v. Wei, et al., 1:15-cv-09691 (RWS)
Request for Briefing Schedule on NYG Defendants' Motion to Dismiss

Dear Judge Sweet:

We represent Defendants Benjamin Wey and NYG Capital, LLC, identified incorrectly in the Amended Complaint as "Benjamin Tianbing Wei a/k/a Benjamin Wey" and "New York Global Group, Inc." (collectively, the "NYG Defendants"). We submit this letter to request that Your Honor so order the parties' agreed-upon briefing schedule for the NYG Defendants' motion to dismiss.

Plaintiff filed an Amended Complaint in July 2016. (See Dkt. No. 17.) After failed settlement attempts, the Court set a briefing schedule for motions to dismiss and in opposition to plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint. (See Dkt. Nos. 57, 77.) Oral argument on those motions is schedule for October 24, 2018.

Plaintiff recently attempted to obtain a default against the NYG Defendants (See Dkt. Nos. 66-69). The clerk rejected the proposed default because plaintiff had not filed proof of service of the Amended Complaint on the NYG Defendants. (See 8/17/2018 Dkt. Notice.) Plaintiff then served the Amended Complaint on the NYG Defendants, and the NYG Defendants moved to dismiss. (See Dkt. No. 89.)

Plaintiff and the NYG Defendants agreed that the briefing schedule and oral-argument date for the NYG Defendants' recently filed motion should match those for the other currently outstanding motions. We thus respectfully request that the Court endorse this letter and so-order the following schedule for the NYG Defendants' motion:

*So ordered

We are grateful for the Court's prompt attention to this request.

Respectfully,

Nathaniel E. Marmon
